

Pet Policy - New Inn

Your room tonight is one of our two Pet Friendly rooms, please contact us directly to reserve a pet friendly bedroom,

Our dog charges are £17.50 per dog per night. At the time of booking please advise if you wish to bring your dog as demand often exceeds supply.

The following are our required rules for dogs:

- Dogs are allowed in the Main Bar, Reception and our dog friendly rooms, at busy times it may not be suitable for dogs to be present, please have consideration for other guests.
- Unfortunately dogs in heat are not permitted in the hotel at anytime.
- Dogs must never be left unsupervised in the bedrooms
- Dogs must remain on leads at all times within the hotel and in the hotel grounds and are never to be left unattended
- Owners are requested to clean up after dogs when on walks to help preserve the charm of this Historical Conservation Village
- One large dog or two small dogs per room only. Allowances may be made at management's discretion
- Owners are requested to bring their own food requirements for dogs
- Owners should bring pet bedding, no pets on beds or furniture.
- When checking in, the dog owner agrees to the hotel's pet policies, to be financially and personally responsible for any damage or injury caused by the dog and to absolve the hotel staff of any liability if the pet or another guest is injured. They also agree to pay any additional cleaning costs needed for damage, at the discretion of Hotel management

We thank you for your compliance in this matter and hope that you and your pet have a relaxing and fun stay.
